

POOR QUALITY DOCUMENT
SEE [] FOLDER FOR HARDCOPY

Did not return File

INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM
AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR LIBERATION
MUNICH OFFICE

TO: Security Officer
FROM: Assistant to Emigre Relations Advisor
SUBJECT: Attack on Viktor Alexandrovich Larionov
REF: Ludwigsfeld, Opalstrasse 14.
Source: Boychevsky, Ludwig

DATE: April 16, 1957
DISTRIBUTION:

I will first give a brief background on the victim. Larionov, in his fifties, is an old emigre who has been long active in the underground struggle against the Soviets.

In the late 1920s he crossed illegally the USSR frontier, coming from either Estonia or Finland. He committed several terroristic acts and returned safely to the West. At that time he was said to be connected with the Bratstvo Russkoi Pravdy (Fraternity of Russian Truth).

Now he is probably a member of RNO (Russian National Association). Larionov is also a close friend of Orekhov, the group's chairman, Brumovskis, & Editor of Chasovoj magazine.

Emigres generally consider Larionov to be an agent of the Verfassungsschutz, or another German internal security agency.

Larionov is said to have been attacked in Ludwigsfeld on the night of April 2. He was allegedly looking for a certain "Soviet agent" known under the name of "Alexis" or "Alexei". Several days prior to the above date, his assistant, Mikhail Blazodarny, Kristallstrasse 4 or 6, Ludwigsfeld, was slightly injured by unknown persons.

Robbery seems ruled out as a motive since his documents, money and valuables were left untouched.

Rumors in emigre circles ascribe the attack to the "Ludwigsfeld nest of pro-Soviet elements".

[Signature]
M. K. [illegible]

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY:
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE/METHOD/EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

(1)

File

Ad not return

INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM
AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR LIBERATION
MUNICH OFFICE

TO: Security Officer
FROM: Assistant to Emigre Relations Advisor
SUBJECT: Attack on Viktor Alexandrovich Larionov
REF: Ludwigsfeld, Opalstrasse 14.
Source: Boychevsky, Ludwigsfeld

DATE: April 16, 1957

DISTRIBUTION:

I will first give a brief background on the victim. Larionov, in his fifties, is an old emigre who has been long active in the underground struggle against the Soviets.

In the late 1920s he crossed illegally the USSR frontier, coming from either Estonia or Finland. He committed several terroristic acts and returned safely to the West. At that time he was said to be connected with the Bratstvo Russkoi Pravdy (Fraternity of Russian Truth).

Now he is probably a member of RNO (Russian National Association). Larionov is also a close friend of Orekhov, the group's chairman, Bernovels. & Editor of "Chassovoj" magazine

Others generally consider Larionov to be an agent of the Verfassungsschutz, or another German internal security agency.

Larionov is said to have been attacked in Ludwigsfeld on the night of April 2. He was allegedly looking for a certain "Soviet agent" known under the name of "Alexis" or "Alexei". Several days prior to the above date, his assistant, Mikhail Blagodarny, Kristallstrasse 4 or 6, Ludwigsfeld, was slightly injured by unknown persons.

Robbery seems ruled out as a motive since his documents, money and valuables were left untouched.

Rumors in emigre circles ascribe the attack to the "Ludwigsfeld nest of pro-Soviet elements".

AM:cb

